

53A-17a-140 Contracts with teachers.

A school district may not enter into contracts with teachers that would prevent the district from paying differential salaries or putting limitations on an individual salary paid in order to fill a shortage in specific teaching areas.

Enacted by Chapter 72, 1991 General Session